

Documents Required for Caribbean Countries Visa

When you submit a Tourist Visa application to Caribbean Countries, you need to have several supporting documents. The Tourist Visa requirements are:

- Tourist Visa Application Form.
- Copy of your passport, which must be valid for at least one year and have at least two blank pages for the visa to be affixed in.
- Passport-size pictures of yourself, with the following specifications:
 - Dimensions: 3.5cm x 4.5cm
 - White background
 - Taken in the last six months
 - You must be staring straight ahead, with a neutral facial expression
 - Your entire face has to be visible
- Flight Itinerary Include a detailed plan of your arrival and departure dates, flight reservation number (you don't have to actually purchase the ticket), your name, etc.
 - Daily Itinerary. You have to include an itinerary of your daily activities in the country which you want to visit.
 - If you have a guarantor in the country which you want to visit:
 - Invitation Letter from the Guarantor
 - If they will help finance your stay: Letter of Guarantee and their Income Certificate issued within the last three months
- Confirmed Hotel reservation.
- Immigration Status, if you are applies from a different country than your origin Country.
- If you are financing your own trip: Bank Statements from the last three months
- Your latest Income Tax Returns, if any.
- If you are visiting someone (friend or family) include proof of relationship, such as:
 - For relatives/family members: civil status documents, such as birth or marriage certificates
 - For friends: Pictures together, receipts, phone call details, and a letter explaining your relationship
- If you are employed: No Objection Certificate or a Letter of Employment from your employer.
- Civil status documents (as required): Birth certificate, marriage certificate, etc.
- Visa application fees (Varies from country to others).

 Note: You are not required to provide all the requirements mentioned previously because each visa application is unique and varies depending on factors such as age and marital status. For more information, please do not hesitate to contact us.